Staying Steady In Unsteady Times

Keep Following

Genesis 37

What are the 3 things we have studied the first 3 Sundays in October:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Which of the above do you find easy to relate to?

When we keep following the Lord, what does that look like? What are the things we should keep doing?

According to John 9, the story of the child born blind, God allowed this so Jesus could heal him. What has God allowed in your life that became an opportunity for God to work?

Have you personally experienced or perhaps seen it in the lives of others the idea that keeping on with habits even when it is difficult or non-productive paid off; it is the difference between the professional and the amateur.

Which of these would you find most difficult to overcome?

- Being rejected by your family or friends
- Being accused falsely by others
- Being found guilty when you were innocent
- Being forgotten and left behind by friends

On a scale from 1 to 10 with 10 being the strongest, how would you rate your desire to be in control? How do you think those who know you would rate you?

What role does “patience” play in this idea of “keep following”?

Have you had regrets because you quit too soon?
